Counsel participating were: Michael Robotti, Jacquelyn Schell, and Lucas Cameron-Vaughn for Plaintiff; Robert Burns for the City Defendants (including individual Defendants in their official capacities); and, Kristin Berexa for the individual Defendants in their individual capacities. Counsel announced that, upon the Court’s direction to continue efforts to resolve the issues raised in Plaintiff’s motion for a preliminary injunction (Docket No. 8) in connection with the BoroPride Festival event scheduled for October 28 and 29, the parties reached an agreement and will submit a proposed agreed order for Chief Judge Crenshaw’s consideration.

Regarding the preliminary injunction motion (Docket No. 8) generally, responsive briefing shall occur as agreed to by the parties as follows:

1. City Defendants’ response to the motion must be filed by no later than November 13, 2023, and shall not exceed 25 pages.¹ Plaintiff may file an optional reply by no later than November 28, 2023, which shall not exceed 10 pages.
